

PULASKI COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Preserving history for a better future.

JOIN THE PULASKI COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY!

Pulaski County was formally organized May 6, 1839, when a group of men met at a log cabin and designated "Winnemack" as the "Seat of Justice." They received donations of land for a public square, a public seminary and a graveyard. The Historical Society exists to preserve the history of the region, from 1839 to the present, and to promote its future.
